SUBJECT: Demarche on 64th UNGA Third Committee Priorities

REF: REF A: STATE 109397

(SBU) On October 26, poloff delivered reftel demarche (regarding U.S. priorities for the UNGA's upcoming Third Committee session) to Leila Villatoro, the MFA's Deputy Director for Multilateral Policy (United Nations). Villatoro said that the Government of Guatemala would likely:

- * continue to oppose no-action motions on the grounds they stifle debate;
 - * support annual country-specific resolutions critical of Iran, Burma, and the DPRK, depending on the final text in each;
 - * abstain from voting on a resolution on defamation of religions, as it has done in the past;
 - * support the U.S. biennial resolution on free elections.
